Fall Final Four elims head Meadowlands card

The Meadowlands is on tonight with a 13-race program featuring $20,000 eliminations for the Freshman Fall Final Four stakes and a $25,000 TVG Open prep for the pacing mares.

Racing Secretary Pete Koch found upon opening the box that each of the 2-year-old stakes would require only a single elimination to reduce each field to ten after byes had been offered to and accepted by the top money winners for each division.

Pacing fillies come first (race three) as they prepare for next week's $381,200 Three Diamonds final. The byes were accepted by division leaders Youaremycandygirl, Rainbow Room and Majorsspeciallady, leaving ten to vie for the seven remaining berths.

MINT TO CRUISE
Parked eighth plus, yielded quarter, stalked balance, brief lead late, nailed by fave. Switches inside, obviously a big threat again.

WHATCHAMACALLUM
Asked to keep up far turn, urged in lane, fair comeback mile. Post relief noted.

PAYDAZE A ROCKIN
Led early, yielded, in lots of traffic str, never had room. Adds Ryan. Not worst stab.

RUSTY CARTER
Away to tuck, 1st over into far turn, got by leader, held okay. Welcome back James. Pretty good spot for Rusty.

CENALTA DIESEL
Looped, checked turn one, tucked, brushed out near half, stormed by leader, nailed late, Fresh Lasix noted. Nick's choice over 2 others. Drops too.

LAISSEZMOIPICOLER
Left well, tracked top trio from quarter, urged, only fair into 56 back half. Maybe a slice.

LIL ORPHAN ELMER
Broken halter backstretch, lost contact into far turn. Another dropper. Steve returns. Obvious use.

BLUE STAR MAVERICK
Left with many, pushed into fast panel, chased to lane, inside traffic, driven, solid tuner. Also drops but moves outside.

CR ARTISTIC
Off couple weeks since his return from Minnesota. Rick drives. Tough spot from nine.

Kindergarten final winner Kissin In The Sand (post two, Tim Tetrick) is the logical favorite off of her imposing 1:50.3 win in that race, missing the track record for her division by a scant fifth of a second. Nancy Johansson conditions the filly for Marvin Katz and Bud Hatfield Stables.

The Goldsmith Maid for filly trotters (race five) drew 11 declarations and Kindergarten final winner Hey Blondie accepted the bye into next week's $420,750 final.

With division leader Manchego passing on the event, it's a pretty even field of ten left to fight over nine spots for next week with Seviyorum (post seven) the likely choice off her runner-up finish in the Breeders Crown. She races out of the Andy and Julie Miller barn for their interests and those of Story Inc.

interest in racing why did he keep running past the wire, making up the 6 1/4 lengths he was beaten and then continuing to open up?

Could there have been a hidden physical problem that went undetected? Many of the experts and analysts and some top local horsemen said they did not like the way he was moving, specifically the way he was pushing off from behind, during the summer when he turned in a couple of subpar works in addition to his pair of defeats.

But that will never be proven, and one would think there were enough astute and knowledgeable horsemen around the colt to detect something like that. That would never escape a Hall of Fame trainer like Bob Baffert. So that brings us back to "why?"

Unfortunately we will never know. Racing people, as mentioned earlier, strive for answers, and it is rare to see a mystery such as this go unsolved, just as it is rare to see a horse as brilliant and dynamic as Arrogate suddenly cease being competitive.

We obviously cannot get inside a horse's head, so it will have to remain a mystery. All that is left now is to determine just who Arrogate was in the grand scheme of things and where he belongs in the history books.

We saw two distinctly different horses, and there is no doubt the one that tore through the Sport of Kings like the proverbial tornado from August, 2016 to March, 2017 was the real Arrogate, and somewhere hidden inside that powerful gray machine with the humongous stride lies the answers explaining

YOU NAME IT

Invader from Northlands Park gets into a good spot if she's ready. Nick's choice.

CENALTA ARTISTRY

Parked eighth plus, out behind winner half, good lead up, driven. Should be tighter. Another must.

BLUE NOTE

Away under urging, settled for great trip, urged, ran out of ground. Difficult to ignore in this crowd.

PAS CORN SQUEEZIN

Left 3wide, parked turn, kept marching to lane, caught wire, ouch. Down the road again for her?

IF I DIDNT DREAM

Left with many, gapped to far turn, urged in the lane, fair. Form just fair. Slice maybe.

LA DIVA DE ROSA

Left hard, yielded mid turn, tracked rest of way, stalled. Adds James. What's her plan from the outside. Readiness?

why the horse we saw at Del Mar this year was an imposter.

And that is why we should remember the Arrogate who raised goose bumps on our arms and left us numb from the experience of watching him run. And we should ignore the phantom who floundered at Del Mar, as we would any mirage.

The ending of Arrogate's career reminds me of the final scene from Casablanca. One of the great romances in screen history failed to provide the ending people had hoped for. But it did give moviegoers an uplifting conclusion when Humphrey Bogart says to Ingrid Bergman, "We'll always have Paris."

HES DONE IT ALL
Left to tuck, took cover late final bend, driven, best of others. Rail, slice of it maybe.

MOON IS ON FIRE
Left with many, out on rim near half, finally covered by winner late last bend, driven, best of the rest. Inside, usable.

NATIVES REVENGE
Looped leaving, took back to drop, followed, stalled last quarter. Back with claimers, he'll play here.

PROCRASTINATINPEAT
Behind gapper far turn, tipped out late, back inside, more traffic, useful tuner. Richard returns.

BETTORDAYS R CUMIN
Away to tuck, tracked to mid-str, cleared bit late, driven to narrow gap. Luke's choice. Another maybe.

DARK PRINCE
Rode cones whole trip, some urging, just fair off no use. Drops. Adds Tony. Price stab.

COWBOYS DIRTYBOOTS
Jumped 2nd over near half, angled wide into str, driven, only fair in Expo bow. Another returning to claimers, will include.

LUCKY IVAN
Away to pocket, good trip to str, weak late. Adds Rick but tough spot.

KUKALAKA
Sent hard from pole, braked, accelerated final bend, light late urging. Faces tougher assignment from tougher post. Still dangerous.
