What we need is a good rivalry

By Ryan Macedonio

When was the last time that Harness Racing had a good ole fashioned rivalry? I mean truly something that will drive people to watch, debate and absorb any content swirling around that rivalry.

I spent the entire weekend, like most people, watching college football showcase their rivalries. Ohio State vs Michigan, Bama/Auburn, USF/UCF, and more. The NCAA, ESPN, FOX and CBS have made a fortune bringing you these games and all of the shows dedicated to each game. So why can't we do the same?

We should create rivalries, which force people to choose sides, which initiates debate, which results in content, which creates interaction, which spawns pride, which generates MONEY. See where I'm going with

LUCKY JEWEL

Left 3wide, while rough mid-turn, parked hard quarter plus, braked, attacked into lane, faded once passed. Adds fresh Lasix and James.

CRASH AND BURN

Tucked mid turn, stalked to 3/4s, kicked wide, urged, away, wow. Price drops now.

RICHELLU COWBOY

Left well, yielded near quarter, tracked balance, heavy traffic str, little bumpy, tough to gauge. Also segues from Conlin final.

BUZZ LIGHT

Out past half, broke into last bend, not sure what to think. Certainly not the worst stab.

COZ AND EFFECT

Left well, tracked to far turn, asked a bit, didn't gain in speedy mile. Likely longshot again.

MUCHO MACHO MAN

Looped, parked quarter, soon 2nd behind winner, chased, urged, 2nd best. Gerry's barn heating up?

WEST FOR GOLD

Shot to top, released to top pair past quarter, out again late far turn, driven, 3rd best.

Outside again but still a player.

MACHABYEBABY

Looped, parked well past quarter, home with trio of 28.1 panels, driven, strong. Similarly, dangerous despite outside post.

this? In the end, we can generate more revenue into the industry by manufacturing rivalries. Yeah, I said it, MANUFACTURING.

Fake it, who is going to know the difference? It's called acting and writing. Most sports do it already. They take something that exists organically and push it deeper.

We already have a rivalry that could be played up, directed, written and pushed into a new area that could be a content machine for everyone! Faraldo vs. Gural, Joe vs. Jeff, The Lawyer vs. The Boss, Yonkers vs Meadowlands.

Whatever side you are on, whenever an article, social media post or discussion gets posted on this rivalry, you're going to read it.

I'd be willing to bet that it is one of the hottest topics and gets the most views on any website. EVERYONE has an opinion on what's happened in this rivalry.

SMASH

Rode rail, shuffled last, angled out top of str, urged, whizzed by em all. Steps back up. Confidence builder? Usable.

MAGNIFIQUE

Rode the rail, failed to get involved. Third start back angle applies. Maybe a slice though.

NIGHTTRAINTOVEGAS

Parked eighth plus, yielded, some traffic far turn, loose late, finished okay. Small field size. Fair form, obvious threat for all the marbles.

CAPITOL HILL

Away 4wide, parked quarter, braked to far turn, attacked, passed, tried to fight back. Also benefits from smaller field size. Probably one to beat.

SPARKIN YOUR FIRE

Cover near half, great lead up trip, urged, away. Her price drops. Looks like one of the three major contenders. Should be flying late. Main threat for sure.

Now imagine if we had a writing team and a director working with both parties to push this rivalry to the limit. Both know that the end results in more money, attention and exposure for the entire sport.

Isn't more money, attention and exposure the ultimate goal for both Faraldo and Gural anyway?

Isn't the whole reason that they are in their positions is because they love harness racing and want to see it thrive into the future?

Well here's your chance to actually help the sport by creating some original content.

Turn your rivalry up a few notches, get a little dirty, have some fun while you're at it too! Realize that everything you do is a content goldmine for harness racing and we need more of it. Get in there boys and do your part to save harness racing.

DEBONATOR

Far back the trip, failed to rally, Fresh Lasix noted. Finally an inside post. And also could be tighter tonight.

EXOTIC FLING

Sent from gate, tracked to lane, urged, no rally. Not a strong group but maybe a slice of it.

LITTLE EMMA

Parked eighth, yielded, tracked to lane, clear, driven, just fair. Benefits from landing in a fairly easy group.

TICK TICK KABOOM

Sped from gate, brushed back quarter, pushed before yielding half, out again near 3/4s, faded from hard use. Extra week off. James choice. User for sure.

HAIRWAY TO HEAVEN

3wide half turn, parked quarter, attacked far turn, held tough to wire. Noteworthy post relief. And third start back angle big plus too. Edge.

CHILMA

Rode the rail, failed to get into it. Adds Steve and fresh Lasix for this one.

CORDEES FANTASY

Bolt d'Oro Taking the Right Path

By Steve Haskin

It is that time again to get up on my lonely pulpit and preach to deaf ears. Yes, it is almost time to embark on the Kentucky Derby trail, and with the recent announcement that top 2-year-old Bolt d'Oro is scheduled to make his 3-year-old debut in the seven-furlong San Vicente Stakes, what better time to try yet again to force feed the concept of a sprint debut to trainers who have no appetite for such mundane matters.

But to their defense, they have fallen victim to the Derby's point system, which fails to reward performances in sprint races, making them useless when it comes to accumulating sufficient points to qualify for the Run for the Roses. But that certainly does not make them useless when it comes to actually winning the race, as you will see farther down.

With so many trainers now intent on running their Derby hopefuls only two times before the big race, they know all too well that it is imperative to earn as many points as possible in those two races. Even trainers planning on three starts head right to two-turn races. That can eventually dull your horse, adding more two-turn races to the ones he already had at 2. The old-time trainers believed a sprint debut is designed to take the spit and vinegar out of a horse after his layoff from 2 to 3 and sharpen him for the big two-turn preps.

On rare occasions you will find trainers nowadays who think old school and actually do what they feel is best to get their horse to peak on the first Saturday in May. These are trainers who have faith in their

We saw two examples of that two years ago in the same race when trainers Doug O'Neill and Keith Desormeaux went out of the box and decided that their respective Derby hopefuls, Nyquist and Exaggerator, who had been competing in major two-turn stakes at a 2, needed to start off the year with a sprint sharpener, so they ran them in the San Vicente and they finished first and second, respectively, in a blazing 1:20 3/5 and then returned to two-turn prep races leading up to the Derby. ing first and second in the Kentucky Derby. Exaggerator then came back to win the Preakness, with Nyquist getting nosed out for second. So the San Vicente – yes, a sprint race -- proved to be the most successful prep of that year's Triple Crown.

The facts speak for themselves. There is a reason why only one Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner, in addition to Nyquist, has won the Kentucky Derby in 33 years. There is a reason why only three of 44 Remsen Stakes winners have won the Derby since the race went to 1 1/8 miles, the last being 23 years ago. There is a reason why only one winner of the Kentucky Jockey Club Stakes has gone on to win the Derby in 29 years. STARTER'S RULES

1728. Starter's Control. The starter shall have control over the horses from the formation of the parade until he gives the word 'go.' The starter shall report to the stewards any misconduct or violation on the part of the driver and may order any unmanageable or disabled horse declared (scratched) from the race with the concurrence of the stewards.

1729. Starting the race. The starter shall bring the horses to the starting gate as near one-quarter of a mile from the starting point as the track may permit, and shall endeavor to get all horses away in position and on gait. If a horse refuses to come to the gate, is unmanageable or liable to cause an accident or injury to any other horse or driver, it may be declared and all monies wagered on that horse shall be refunded.

1730. Recalls. The starter may sound a recall for only the following reasons: 1-A horse scored ahead of the gate; 2- There is interference prior to the word 'go' being given; 3-A horse has broken equipment; 4-A horse falls prior to the word 'go' being given. There shall be no recall after the word 'go' is given and any horse, regardless of his position or an accident, shall be deemed a starter from the time he entered into the starter's control unless dismissed.

Race 8 News

And there is a reason why only one winner of the Breeders' Futurity has won the Derby in 36 years, the last being 34 years ago.

Is it merely a coincidence why, excluding Nyquist, there have been only seven Kentucky Derby winners to come out of the five major two-turn 2-year-old stakes in 176 runnings? Each person can form his own conclusion. Perhaps horses are peaking at two turns as 2-year-olds, and continued two-turn races without a sharpener makes it more difficult to maintain that form and then peak on Derby Day. Remember, the Derby is often won with speed as much as it is with stamina. Speed to get position early; speed to keep pace in a 20-horse field; speed to launch a bid and outrun others to a hole; and speed to outclose the contenders in the stretch. That speed has to come from some-furlongs.

The sprint debuts by the horses listed above came in allowance races, the Hutcheson Stakes, Bahamas, Bay Shore, Swale, Swift, Hibiscus, Los Feliz, San Vicente, San Miguel, Key West Stakes and Experimental Free Handicap, many of which no longer exist.

As mentioned earlier, all the emphasis now is on earning Derby points, and there are zero points given to sprint stakes, because Churchill Downs is trying to keep the pure sprinters out of the Derby and avoid suicidal paces caused by horses who don't belong in the race. That is understandable. But those pure sprinters are not going to earn any more points in the longer races, and chances are they won't qualify even if their misguided connections are determined to do wrong by their horse. Maybe once in 10

Individual Recap Last Race Footnotes

PL JALAPENO

Shuffled to last, out midfar turn, wide into lane, closed okay while wide. James choice over two others. Great spot.

PROCRASTINATINPEAT

Parked eighth to drop, shuffled, cleared in lane, urged, fair. Post relief but probable longshot.

CHIEF SARATOGA

Been on the shelf almost a month. Nick's choice over three others.

VOW TO WIN

1st out half, advanced on rim to lane, held to midstretch. Drops. Quentin returns.

GENE EUGENE

Away well, first over half, sped by leader, swallowed up final yards. Segues from tough claimer. Looks tough on paper.

HEART N HUSTLE

Gapped bit to far turn, tipped out, failed to advance. Adds Steve for this.

TOUCH OF THE PAST

Away well, 1st over past half, rimmed balance, stalled. Switches outside. Longshot.

ULYSSES BLUE CHIP

Asked leaving, yielded, tracked balance, driven aggressively late, ran out of ground. Tries Mooney. What's his plan here?

FAST TRACK: The optimum condition for a dirt track, dry, fast and even.

GOOD TRACK: Condition between fast and slow, generally a bit wet.

SLOPPY TRACK: A track that is wet on surface with firm bottom.

SLOW TRACK: A track with some moisture in it that is not fast, between good and heavy.

MUDDY TRACK: Deep condition of racetrack after being soaked with water.

HEAVY TRACK: Condition of track when wet similar to muddy but slower.

years one will somehow sneak in. So while I can understand why they have eliminated points for sprints, they are depriving top-class horses and trainers of the chance to get to the Derby sharp and in peak form.

So, good for Mick Ruis and Ruis Racing for believing in their horse and running where they feel he belongs and what will get him to the Kentucky Derby the right way, despite not earning any points. With his class and brilliance and natural ability, there will be plenty of opportunity in the San Felipe Stakes and Santa Anita Derby to assure a spot in the Derby field.

After all, when you think of the name Bolt, you think of the greatest sprinter in the world. It all makes sense.

Exit pulpit. Nothing like a good cleansing before the Derby Dozen.

Individual Recap Last Race Footnotes

BETTORDAYS R CUMIN
Sent to top, yielded half, back out late final bend, held okay. Favorable draw. Small shot.

MR RIGHTNOW
Left to pocket, tracked to far turn, cover near 3/4s, driven, only fair. Adds Tony. Third start.

COWBOYS DIRTYBOOTS
Out near quarter, surged past half to clear, kept marching, urged, held. Obvious danger again.

ALLAMERICAN SOLO
Parked long eighth plus, quarter moved, attacked by winner, yielded into far turn, urged, tried to fight back. James choice. Better post. Use.

TORNADO HENRY
Moved out from half, wide around poor flow, soon 3rd over near 3/4s, wide, driven, closed fast. Wants live cover. Should get it.

REGINA BEACH
Wide turn one, took back, 2nd over half, faded from hard use. Undercard stab?

NATIVES REVENGE
Rode cones to far turn, suffered traffic issues, faded. Tighter?. Post woes.

HOLLA AT UR BOY

LUCKY IVAN
Led early, tracked balance, jammed badly last bend, only fair once free. Drops to level of last strong win.
